Gusty breezes out of the South made for unusual sailing, even by Portage Bay standards. Thanks to Bob and Tess Brown for running the Race Committee with Bert. One racer went home because he didn't have rain gear - and the rain stopped before the races started. Another returned to the dock because of the strong wind gusts (predicted to be in the 20s).

Some of the regular winners had a bad day. Keith Johnson came in third. Bob Hale second. Grant Chyz had three firsts and won the day.

The next race will be Wednesday July 8 @ 6 p.m. with Bob Moore as RC - confirmed. We need RC for July 15 and the rest of the Wednesdays.
