Nine racers turned out in sunny weather to shifting light - nonexistent winds and currents not previously experienced in Portage Bay. Rob wondered if the Locks spillways had been opened to lower the water from the recent river flooding & causing the currents.

The first race saw winds coming through the cut (what winds there were) and currents pushing boats away from the start line. Some boats were lucky; others not. After moving buoys because of wind changes a second race was started. Some races were very tight. After 2 hours and only 2 races completed racers voted to call it a day. We adjourned to the Marine Room & joined by Fred Pot and Phil Calvert.

Third place was a tie with third going to Frank Lawrence & Bill Boyeson getting fourth.
Second place went to Bob Hale with six points and Rob Wilcox earned first place with five points.
